Dear Mr. White:

As Chief Maintenance Officer at St. Martin of Tours Parish, I am the individual who most directly deals with your personnel. Congratulations are very much in order for the efficient and professional service given by your staff. In my experience from the initial call through the completion of service everyone involved gives the impression that we are a preferred and valued client. Their endeavors to provide the best service and generous consideration of our limited financial resources is a tremendous blessing.

Thank you for all you continue to do for us and be assured that you are counted among our most treasured benefactors. We look forward to continued professionalism and generosity from you and your staff.

Respectfully,

Richard Kirk
Chief Mainenance Officer
